

Quadcopter Visually Aided Navigation – First Person View

A drone with a camera and video transmitter can be used to augment visual navigation. Using First Person View (FPV) goggles students can maneuver the drone using the visual image from the drone mounted camera.

This can be an exciting yet challenging exercise as you learn to use different visual cues in determining distance and speed.

